YOU CANNOT HIDE YOUR FAT

Overfatness is the one misfortune you cannot hide from yourself or from those around you. If too thin, your dressmaker or tailor can supply the deficiencies, but the overfat carry a burden they can not conceal. There is one sure way to reduce your weight—surely and quickly. The harmless Marmola Prescription, which changes the fatty tissues and fat-producing foods to solid flesh and energy, helps the general health and digestion, permits you to eat substantial food, and leaves the skin clear and smooth. This famous prescription is now condensed in tablet form. Each tablet contains an exact dose of the same harmless ingredients that made the original prescription capable of reducing the overall body weight and completely without the slightest ill effects. Take but one tablet after each meal and at bedtime until the normal weight is reached and the body's health completely restored. Ask your druggist for Marmola Prescription Tablets or send one dollar to the Marmola Company, 3612 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich., the price the world over, and you will receive a enough to start you well on the road to slenderness and happiness.

more friends of the bridal pair. A wedding breakfast was served, after which Dr. and Mrs. Morgan left on their journey to their western home. The bride is an alumnus of Tomah high, attended Milwaukee Downer for two years and graduated from Wisconsin university in 1918. Since that time she has been a successful teacher of mathematics in the high schools of Rhinelander and Viroqua. Dr. Morgan is a graduate of Northwestern Dental college and is practicing his profession in the west. It is probable that the bridal pair will make their home in Walla Walla, but that question has as yet not been fully decided.

Is your skin pale and fallow?

If your skin is pale and fallow, it shows the need of a more stimulating treatment than you are using.

To give your skin the soft, clear color every healthy skin should have, follow once a week this special treatment:

JUST before retiring, fill your basin full of hot water—almost boiling hot. Bend over the top of the basin and cover your head with a heavy bath towel, so that no steam can escape.

Steam your face for thirty seconds.

Now lather a hot cloth with Woodbury's Facial Soap. With this wash your face thoroughly, rubbing the lather well into the skin with an upward and outward motion.

Then rinse the skin well, first, with warm water, then with cold, and finish by rubbing it for thirty seconds with a piece of ice.

THE other six nights of the week cleanse your skin thoroughly in the usual way with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water.

Get a cake of Woodbury's today, and begin tonight this special steam treatment. A 25-cent cake of Woodbury's lasts for a month or six weeks.

TWO HANDSOME SCHOOL BUILDINGS WITH SPLENDID FACILITIES AND BEAUTIFUL DECORATIONS OPENED

JUNIOR HIGH AND WASHBURN SCHOOLS HAVE BIG FEATURES

Gymnasiums and Baths and Special Departments Installed
for the Pupils' Benefit

Marking an epoch in the advancement of the city's educational system, two handsome new modern schools were opened last week for the accommodation of several hundred pupils.

Little Johnny and 6000 Mary may not have had very joyful when they heard the school bell ring last Tuesday morning for the first time, after the summer vacation, but their sadness disappeared like dew before a July sun when they arrived in the new Washburn school at Eighth and Main streets and saw the handsome, light, airy rooms and fine facilities which had been provided for their enjoyment during school hours. Likewise the older boys and girls who flocked into the new north side high school for the first time must have enjoyed keen interest in the attractive surroundings which make attendance at school in that building a pleasure.

Two Types of Buildings

Differing widely in architectural style and interior arrangements, the Logan junior high school and Washburn school each represent the latest word in modern school facilities. Each building was planned with the idea of conserving space, and both architectural firms, Parkinson and Lockwood, who planned the Logan school, and Mr. E. E. Lockwood, who planned the Washburn school, succeeded admirably in their aim without sacrificing any of the attractive features of the interior arrangements.

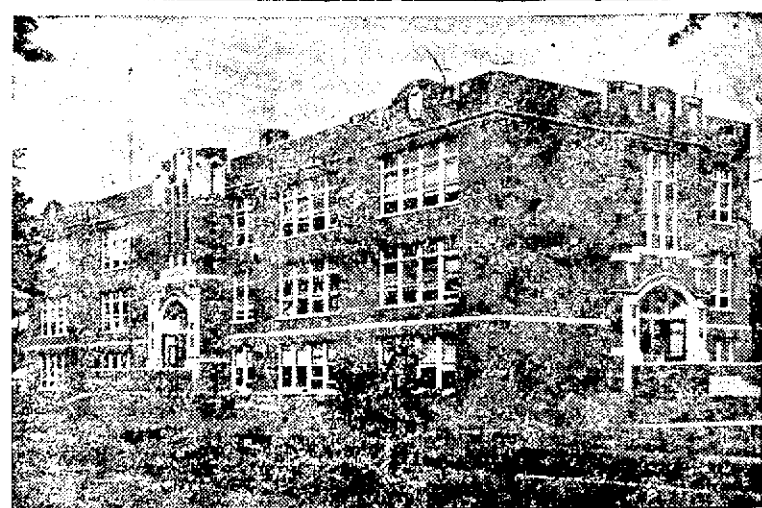

The Washburn school was built to accommodate between 500 and 600 pupils. At present there are 17 teachers in the building, and the close of the first week of school found the work splendidly organized and practically all of the equipment in place.

There are three distinctive features in this school, two of which are new departments in public school work here. An opportunity school and an open air school are innovations established in the Washburn school which will be watched with great interest by local authorities. There is also a day school for the deaf conducted in the building. In addition there is a kindergarten which housed the first week of having four sets of twins enrolled as pupils, and eight regular school grades.

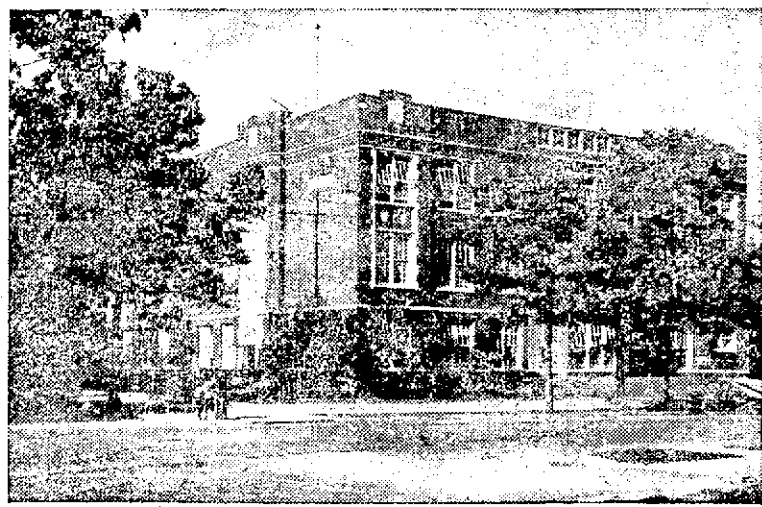

Noiseless Floors
There are noiseless mastic floors throughout the building, eliminating the clatter of feet and jarring of floors associated with school rooms from time immemorial. Central fixtures on the windows permit easy opening and closing of windows and indirect currents of fresh air.

The building abounds in built-in features, with drawers and cabinets for all sorts of school supplies. The old-time hall in which pupils hang their outer wraps is missing and instead each assembly room is provided with wardrobes built into the walls, in plain view of pupils and teachers when open, but separated from the school room when closed by drop doors on which blackboards are installed. A ventilating system in the wardrobe sheers off from the clothing upwards and aids greatly in drying outer wraps.

In the basement are shower baths

and locker rooms for boys and girls. The wash rooms are equipped with handsome granite fixtures and mirrors. Two-way doors are provided in the building, making collisions between pupils impossible.

For School Nurse

Near the principal's room is a room for the school nurse to conduct her office. The library is large and splendidly equipped, as is also the manual training department. The domestic science room has kitchen tables at which four girls can work at a time with all required utensils. Individual gas stoves facilitate the work in this department, some of them being equipped with broilers.

The gymnasium auditorium is a new feature which attracts a great deal of attention. The gym is located on a raised platform in front of which is an auditorium seating 500 persons. Half of the seats may be removed, permitting additional space for exercises.

thetic work or exhibitions. The gymnasium platform is 56 feet long and 32 feet wide.

The decorations in the Washburn school are handsome, the walls being of tan colored plastic construction with French gray trimmings. A pneumatic clock rings all gongs and bells. A siren horn is provided for a fire alarm.

A teachers' rest room is splendidly equipped. Halls and corridors are light and airy as are all the school rooms. There are flexible rooms with folding doors which can quickly be converted into two rooms. The equipment for this school cost $26,000 and includes every device and facility for the comfort of pupils and teachers.

New Logan School

Entering the new north side high school, one is immediately impressed by the spacious corridors, exceptionally well lighted, which stretch out on either hand, with recitation and assembly rooms on each side of the hall. There are 11 recitation rooms, all handsomely equipped, and one large assembly room seating 312 pupils. Terrazzo floors adorn the corridors, with maple floors in the rooms and oak trimmings throughout the building.

The gymnasium is 75 feet long and 50 feet wide. Complete equipment will be installed in this department. The commercial department has new typewriters and desks. The manual training equipment was installed during the week and regular classes will be held during the coming week.

Built-in drawers and cupboards feature the domestic science department and every facility is provided for the girls who learn how to cook and sew.

Fine Bath Rooms

Like the Washburn school the Logan school is equipped with separate shower baths, locker rooms and wash rooms for girls and boys. The teachers' rest room is a cozy compartment, well furnished. Light colors are used in the decorations throughout the building and the artistic effect is exceedingly attractive.

The junior high school also has a pneumatic clock which automatically rings the recitation and school assembly gongs.

There is one room in the school equipped with Moerser top desks, incorporating an army rest extension to the top which makes writing easy for the pupil.

Is Well Organized

The third day of school found the junior high school well organized and classes operating smoothly. North side pupils are attending this school during their freshman year and for the first half of their sophomore year instead of going to the south side high school. The saving in street car fare and lunch money will reach a large total each year.

The north side high school has a full complement of teachers with gymnasium instructor and special teachers for the commercial, domestic science and manual training departments.

Residents of the north side are justly proud of their new high school and all visitors are delighted with the building and its handsome appointments.

Cures Speech Defects

Another innovation in the public schools here is found in the Washburn school, where Miss Mary Zerler, a specially trained teacher, treats individually all pupils having defects in speech. Under her guidance many pupils will cease to stammer and learn how properly to use their voices. There are approximately 140 pupils in public schools here with defects of speech. All of these will come under the guidance of Miss Zerler during this school year. Noteworthy progress was made in remedying these defects in several cases during the first week of school.

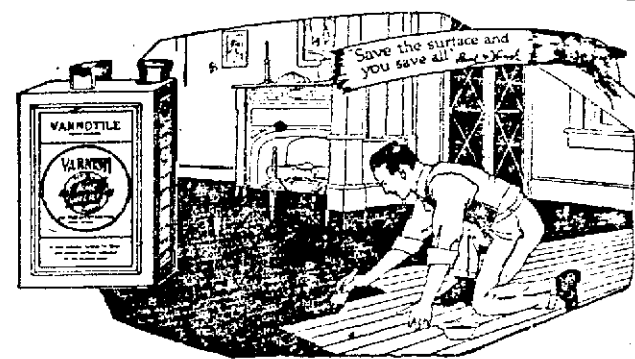

Open Air School

On the south side of the Washburn school building, on the main floor is located the open air school. Children who are sickly or have not normal strength will study in this school in the outside atmosphere. Windows will be open both winter and summer, and selective methods will be employed to build up their bodies and at the same time give them full educational advantages. At intervals they will be given rest and luncheon in the domestic science department and then return to their studies and exercises in the outdoor school.

An opportunity school in which pupils will be given work for which they appear to be especially fitted is located on the north side of the main floor. This is another venture which was watched with great interest by educational authorities.

There are 245 counties in Texas.

You Can Have Your Washing "Soft Water Washed"

Nearly all of the people of La Crosse have heard of our water softener but they have vague ideas of what it is like. Some think we soften water by the application of chemicals and some think the rain water is caught from the roof but such is not the case. We pump hard water from our well and through a large upright filter containing a substance which grips the Lime and Magnesium, allowing the clear rain-soft water to pass on to the washing machines.

We filter about 40,000 gallons or about 160 tons of this water per day for nothing but family washings. No wonder then the use of strong chemicals is unnecessary when washed the soft water way. Give us a trial and be convinced.

ELIZABETH NORBECK CHARMING BRIDE OF
EDWARD ROBINSON

ONE OF THE HANDSOMEST and most brilliant marriage ceremonies it has been the privilege of social circles of this city to witness, took place Saturday afternoon at Christ Episcopal church, when Miss Elizabeth Norbeck, daughter of Mrs. Grace Maynor Norbeck, became the bride of Mr. Edward Robinson of Bethlehem, Pa. It was a rainbow wedding, the first being carried out in the gown of the bride.

At five o'clock the brilliant party made its appearance, led by the ushers, Messrs. Dickson G. Watts and Alan Macdonald of New York City, and Mr. Markle of Hazleton, Pa. Archie S. Woods of Easton, Pa., R. L. Colby and Robert J. Linderman of Bethlehem, Pa. The bridesmaids followed, Miss Elizabeth Whipple of Easton, Pa., Miss Mary Parkinson of Madison, Wis., Miss Marion Barney of Sparta, Wis., Miss Anna Esch, Miss Mary Baldwin and Miss Eleanor Sanford of this city. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Hixon of Pasadena, Calif., followed by the bridesmaids in the arm of her grandfather, Mr. J. S. McHenry.

They were met at the residence by the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Robinson of Bethlehem, Pa., and the party left the church.

At five o'clock the wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. W. H. Norton. Here the bride and groom were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, J. S. McHenry.

The church was beautifully trimmed in green and white, which was very dainty and effective. The front of the roodscreen was massed with palms and ferns as a wooded bank, and on either side were tall white candles. The aisle to the communion rail was lined with palms and ferns with two white candelabra at either side. These were encircled with festoons of trailing vines, and surmounted with bouquets of pink and white blossoms, the only touch of color seen. They were also tied with white chiffon streamers. Back of this were tall palms and vases of daisies and hydrangeas. The mid aisle of the church was roped with white satin ribbon.

Following the nuptial ceremony, at six o'clock dinner was served to the wedding party at the Country club. The guests numbered twenty-seven.

At half-past seven a wedding reception was held at the club. The great room was elaborately trimmed with a variety of fall flowers combined with masses of ferns. Two serving tables were laid, Mrs. Joseph P. Hixon presiding at one and Mrs. Andrew Lees at the other. Each table was featured by long flat floral pieces of pink peonies and blue larkspur. The room was illuminated by tapers in quaint old candelabra, which shed a pretty glow over all. The porch was especially attractive, huge palms and ferns with baskets of flowers converting it into a woody bower.

The bride was very graceful and charming in her bridal robe of white satin crepe over white satin, enhanced by old point lace, a relic of her grandmother's trousseau, and orange blossoms. Her tulle veil fell from a coronet of the old point lace and orange blossoms. Her slippers were of white satin, and she carried a shower of white roses and lilies of the valley with "lovers' knots" and streamers of white satin ribbon.

The attendants carried out the rainbow effect in their gowns and streamers.

Miss Hixon, the maid of honor, wore yellow crepe de chine with silver trimming and a hat of yellow tulle. Her bouquet was a shower of yellow roses with yellow streamers.

Miss Whipple and Miss Parkinson wore gowns of orchid colored chiffon over satin; Miss Barney and Miss Esch wore green chiffon over satin and Miss Baldwin and Miss Sanford pink chiffon over satin. All wore tulle hats of the color of their frocks. Their slippers and hose were of silver, and their bouquets were arm showers of roses and trailing streamers of the prevailing color of the costume.

The bride's going away costume was of dark blue tulle, handsomely embroidered in gray. Her hat was a straw toque and her shoes and hose were also gray. A long wrap, cape effect, completed this handsome costume. With it she carried an exquisite, gray velvet handbag beaded in steel, the gift of the maid of honor.

The bride has a charming personality and is very popular in a large circle of acquaintances. She is a direct descendant of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. She received her education in the La Crosse schools and the University of Wisconsin.

Mr. Robinson is a graduate of Harvard and Lehigh Universities and is a member of the University and Psi Upsilon clubs of New York City. During the World War he was a lieutenant in the First Gas Regiment and was twice wounded in action. He is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. John Markle and a grandson of Mrs. J. Hood Wright of New York City.

Gifts of rare beauty and value were received by the bride. They were inclusive of massive silver, frail glass and china from Tiffany, filmy lace and exquisitely choice embroideries and linens, some of which the product of foreign countries.

PIONEER RESIDENT PASSES
HIS NINETY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY
AT HIS HOME HERE

Mr. Frederick Koerner, who resides with his granddaughter, Mrs. Henry North, 2002 Main street, has the distinction of being one of the oldest, if not the very oldest resident of the city, having passed his ninety-fifth birthday on Friday, August 25. A group of about a dozen relatives and friends surprised him on that occasion. An enjoyable evening was passed, the diversion being cards, interspersed by violin numbers rendered by Mr. Koerner. A daily luncheon was served. The guests present on this occasion were Mesdames O. Preschle, Jennie Rehfuss, Anna Wanner, Augusta Rudolf, A. W. Nehl of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Henry North and daughter Loretta, Miss Lottie Simmerling, and Messrs. Fred Simmerling, Frank Zoeller and William Meeser.

Mr. Koerner was born at Saxen, Germany. He came to this country sixty-three years ago, landing at New York and coming to Milwaukee. Later he came to La Crosse, where he has resided for sixty years. Mr. Koerner was the owner of a successful vineyard situated on the bluffs. Many of the older residents remember in their childhood this wonderfully beautiful spot in Ebner's Coulee. Six years ago Mr. Koerner retired from active business. He enjoys good health for one of his years, reads the daily papers and is interested in the current events of the day. About once a week he goes down town.

Mr. Koerner has four living children: Mrs. Augusta Rudolf and Miss Koerner of this city and two sons elsewhere. His grandchildren are Mrs. Henry North of this city, Mrs. A. W. Nehl of Chicago, and eight in other cities. He also has two great grandchildren. The passing of his natal day was marked by gifts and congratulatory messages.

LIES POOR STUFF TO FEED LOVE IS
PLAY'S ARGUMENT

"Why Wives Go Wrong," an ingenious elaboration of difficulties in a middle-class family due to suspicions of a husband and concealments of a wife, will make its final appeal to La Crosse audiences Sunday matinee and night. It is an appeal that has been pretty strong, considering the unsuspected size of the matinee audiences which have turned out to applaud the piece, and the reception has been not undeserved by the company. "Why Wives Go Wrong" is played by a competent if not brilliant company, and Miss Hilda Graham, the leading woman, is a personable young person with real talent.

The story is that of a young woman who does not like to tell the truth and shame the devil, because she finds her husband fussy about bills, and inclined to cut the household allowance, she gets a job to supply the needful money for clothes and things. Because hubby, she knows, would protest, she neglects to mention the job. When the show-down comes, and her absence from home is detected, she trots out her regular line of half-truth and falsehood, but her spouse has the inside dope, or just enough of it to trap her. What he doesn't know he guesses at, and when in desperation the lady tries to tell the truth he won't even listen, much less believe.

Then it's outdoors for her, with her "companion in crime" who is really only her employer, and not a bad chap although a bachelor, while the husband refrains from shooting the pair of them. It's well straightened out by the intervention of a saintly book agent with a book that has the real interpretation of life in it—book's name not mentioned—and the tiny shoes that belonged to a baby that died.

Miss Graham as the wife and Mr. Alexander Campbell as the husband have most of the heavy lifting in the piece, and carry it well. Richard Earle, the unwholesome villain, is smooth and cynical to satisfy the most critical, if not as black as the husband's fancy paints him. And Miss Hilda Stuart has a deserved opportunity as a helpful friend with a slangy tongue and a rough slant on mankind, but a heart of gold. Augustus Neville, as the book agent, seems thoroughly in

FALL SEMESTER TO COMMENCE TUESDAY
AT NORMAL SCHOOL

Work of First Day Will be Given Over to Registration of Students

SEVEN NEW INSTRUCTORS
TO BE ON THE FACULTY

College Course to be Offered
Same as in Past

The opening of the fall term at the normal school, next Tuesday, September 12, will find several new members on the faculty of the school in the model school.

Miss Faye Griffith, graduate of the Terre Haute normal school and of the Teachers' college at Columbia university, will also be on the staff of the normal school. She has been teaching at Terre Haute, Ind.

Mr. Arthur Kemble, who has been teaching at Northwestern university since his graduation from that school, has been added to the staff of the English department.

Miss Thompson Back
Miss Leonora Thompson will again be connected with the school of physical education. She will take the place of Mrs. Reery. Miss Thompson is well known here, having held the same position two years ago at the normal school. Since leaving La Crosse she has been conducting a dance studio in San Francisco.

Beginning with the opening of the fall semester, several four-year courses will be offered to students at the normal school. These courses will prepare for teaching positions in high schools, principalships of high school and large graded schools, positions in state normal schools, including critic teaching, as well as teaching in all departments, supervising of grade work in cities and towns, and similar positions.

College Course Offered
"There has been some question," said President F. A. Cotton, "as to whether or not the college course will be offered this year. I wish to make it known that the college course will be offered this year the same as in former years. Students entering the course this fall will be permitted to finish the work during the year of 1929-30."

More rooms are needed to care for the students who have already begun to arrive in the city. There is also a demand for more homes in which girls may do housework for their board and room. More jobs are wanted for boys, also. President Cotton has a long list of the names of boys who are willing to do almost any sort of work to pay all or part of their expenses. Many are qualified as clerks, chauffeurs, etc.

The first day of the new semester will be given over to the work of registering the students. All students entering the school from the city of La Crosse are requested to wait until afternoon before registering in order that the work may be accomplished more quickly. A record enrollment is expected.

Miss Mary Sheridan, a graduate of Illinois State Normal school and the University of Illinois, will teach the fifth and sixth grades in the model school. She formerly held the position of critic in the model school of the Cornsboro, Ill. normal school and of the Valley City, Minn. normal school.

Mr. Louis F. Perry, who will be replacing the music department by Mr. Joseph L. Perry, is a graduate of the University of Michigan and holds a degree from the Teachers' college at Columbia. He has also done graduate work at Columbia and the University of Wisconsin.

The French and Spanish departments will be in charge of Mr. William L. Perry, who is taking the place of Mr. L. Perry. Mr. Perry has been teaching French languages at the state normal college at Greeley, Col. He has his A. B. and A. M. degrees from the University of Michigan.

Miss Faye Griffith, graduate of the Terre Haute normal school and of the Teachers' college at Columbia university, will also be on the staff of the normal school. She has been teaching at Terre Haute, Ind.

More rooms are needed to care for the students who have already begun to arrive in the city. There is also a demand for more homes in which girls may do housework for their board and room. More jobs are wanted for boys, also. President Cotton has a long list of the names of boys who are willing to do almost any sort of work to pay all or part of their expenses. Many are qualified as clerks, chauffeurs, etc.

The first day of the new semester will be given over to the work of registering the students. All students entering the school from the city of La Crosse are requested to wait until afternoon before registering in order that the work may be accomplished more quickly. A record enrollment is expected.

Miss Mary Sheridan, a graduate of Illinois State Normal school and the University of Illinois, will teach the fifth and sixth grades in the model school. She formerly held the position of critic in the model school of the Cornsboro, Ill. normal school and of the Valley City, Minn. normal school.

Mr. Louis F. Perry, who will be replacing the music department by Mr. Joseph L. Perry, is a graduate of the University of Michigan and holds a degree from the Teachers' college at Columbia. He has also done graduate work at Columbia and the University of Wisconsin.

The French and Spanish departments will be in charge of Mr. William L. Perry, who is taking the place of Mr. L. Perry. Mr. Perry has been teaching French languages at the state normal college at Greeley, Col. He has his A. B. and A. M. degrees from the University of Michigan.

Miss Faye Griffith, graduate of the Terre Haute normal school and of the Teachers' college at Columbia university, will also be on the staff of the normal school. She has been teaching at Terre Haute, Ind.

Mr. Arthur Kemble, who has been teaching at Northwestern university since his graduation from that school, has been added to the staff of the English department.

Miss Thompson Back
Miss Leonora Thompson will again be connected with the school of physical education. She will take the place of Mrs. Reery. Miss Thompson is well known here, having held the same position two years ago at the normal school. Since leaving La Crosse she has been conducting a dance studio in San Francisco.

Beginning with the opening of the fall semester, several four-year courses will be offered to students at the normal school. These courses will prepare for teaching positions in high schools, principalships of high school and large graded schools, positions in state normal schools, including critic teaching, as well as teaching in all departments, supervising of grade work in cities and towns, and similar positions.

College Course Offered
"There has been some question," said President F. A. Cotton, "as to whether or not the college course will be offered this year. I wish to make it known that the college course will be offered this year the same as in former years. Students entering the course this fall will be permitted to finish the work during the year of 1929-30."

"Pimples broke out on my forehead and soon spread all over my face. They were hard, large and red and festered. The pimples itched and burned so that I was almost crazy at times. My face was disfigured, and at night I could not sleep on account of the irritation."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. They helped me so I purchased more, and after using four boxes of Cuticura Soap, with the Cuticura Ointment, I was healed."

Studebaker

BIG-SIX

$1650

THE dependability of the Studebaker Big-Six is due to correct design, the use of the best materials money can buy and the highest standard of workmanship.

Studebaker stands in absolute control of the quality of the materials at all times, because Studebaker makes in its own plants such vital parts as motors, transmissions, axles, frames, bodies, tops, castings, forgings, stampings, etc. The parts-makers' profits on such items are, therefore, eliminated and only one manufacturing profit is included in Studebaker prices.

The Big-Six is distinctive in appearance with its handsome body and many refinements. It offers genuine comfort through its long semi-elliptic springs, restful 9-inch seat cushions, fine upholstery and shock absorbers. It is economical to buy and own, and enjoys a high resale value.

The new price of $1650 for the Big-Six Touring car is the lowest at which it has ever sold. Yet the quality is actually better than ever and this means a value that is duplicated nowhere else in the field of fine cars. You won't find greater satisfaction at any price.

The Big-Six Touring car provides ample room for seven. When not in use the auxiliary seats fold neatly out of sight—always ready for instant use when you need them.

The name Studebaker is our greatest asset and your best protection.

RECORD CROP OF CABBAGE SEEN BY STATE REPORTER

Production Estimated to Reach 155,000 Tons for the Present Season

MADISON, Wis.—The production of cabbage in Wisconsin this year is estimated at 155,000 tons by the state crop reporting service. This tonnage is compared with the production of 57,000 tons in 1921 and a five year average of 115,000 tons. Average of all cabbage is set at 17,500, compared to 11,000 last year, and a five year average of 14,700.

The commercial acreage in the twelve leading counties is placed at 12,313 as compared to 9,709 acres last year. Of the 3,451 acres in Outagamie county, about 20 per cent is early cabbage, most of which is made into kraut. The condition is 85 per cent of normal.

In Brown county 60 per cent is early cabbage, largely being used for kraut, the report says. The average condition is 80 per cent. Twenty-five per cent of the early cabbage produced in Kenosha county has already been moved. Rain is said to be needed in this district.

About 30 per cent of the acreage in Racine county is early cabbage, mostly for kraut, with approximately 50 per cent moved. Fond du Lac reports even better conditions of its cabbage crop due to ample rain. Milwaukee reports that 75 per cent of its crop is early cabbage and under present marketing conditions will not be harvested.

The late crop in St. Croix and Pierce counties is suffering from lack of rain. Some shipments have been made. In Eau Claire, Chippewa and Clark counties the late crop is also reported to be in need of moisture.

A tent 40 feet long and 20 feet wide has been procured for this purpose.

The information bureau will furnish information regarding rooms, trams, street car service, amusements and other things which fair visitors may desire to know. Co-operating in the plan, boy scouts will be stationed in two army tents in the rear of the information bureau to guide visitors.

Ice water, easy chairs, writing tables and other facilities will be provided in the rest room.

FALL SUITS

One unusual feature this season is the appearance of rich deep piled fabrics in suits. Veldyne, Velours, Duvet de Laine, and the lighter Bolivias are not confined to coats, but come forth in the smartest of two-piece models. Coats are long and slim, or end in a band fitting snugly about the hips. This is embroidered or trimmed with fur.

Collars and Cuffs are fairly large and patches of fur adorn the longer coats. Skirts are plain. Paris and New York send word of the success of blue and black. Sizes from 16 to 56 bust, priced up from $20.00.

A SWEATER IS NEVER ANY BOTHER.

You can't blame the youngsters for packing all the fun they can into recess and after school even if it is hard on their clothes. But the truth is—a youngster can have a better time in a Sweater with less damage than in any other wrap. We have a dandy showing of Sweater Coats and Slipovers, all wool, too, in sizes 26 to 38, from $3.00 and up.

THE COMING OF FALL FILLS ONE WITH A ZEST FOR SPORTS

—And of course to play the game these days with any sort of social success depends more upon how one looks than on how one plays. So whether you hike, golf or cheer your football team on to victory you'll be the smarter for a visit to the Sports Apparel Section where vivid Sweaters and swirling Scarfs, Butterfly, High Collar, Tuxedo and Slipover are here in stripes, high colors and novelties as well as the staple shades hold forth in all their Autumn swagger. The Slipover styles range from $3.00 to $9.75. While the Tuxedos are from $5.00 to $15.00, and the Scarfs from $2.25 up.

MISSSES ESCH ENJOYING SIGHTS OF EUROPE WITH STOPS IN MANY LANDS

(Editor's Note: Following are letters written by Misses Ruth and Marie Esch, who are touring Europe, to their mother, Mrs. John J. Esch.)

Rome, Hotel Savoia, Aug. 4. We thought for a while that we were going to get mixed up in some Italian brawl or revolution. The first day after we arrived all the cabmen and conductors on the street cars decided to strike. Of course that made it very convenient for us American sight seers—we had to go "Romina" on foot and everything we wanted to see seemed miles off. We trailed over to the Forum one morning and nearly broiled in the hot sun gazing upon the old ruins of basilicas, temples, rostrae and domi. We saw the spot where Mark Anthony delivered his famous oration and walked down the Via Sacra—"Sacred Way"—where many emperors had paraded before us.

We spent our Monday afternoon and Italian money in shopping. Both went fast. Our next long walk was to the Palatine Hill—a little farther than the Forum. This was the site of all the emperors' palaces and gardens. Excavations show that one building had been built right on top of another. We walked through one long passage way—part underground and part above—built by the crazy Emperor Sallustiana, who after four years' reign was murdered here. Happy thought as we went through!

The Palace of Tiberius has not yet been excavated and is completely covered by a beautiful garden. Here we stopped to rest.

Private cars were secured for the afternoon's program. We went to the Colosseum where a toothless guide kept asking us to pay attention while he told us the history of the ruins and the "vows of the vestal virgins." We had all we could do to understand anything he said. The Colosseum was the scene of many Christian slaughters by the lions which were kept on the hill nearby. The Colosseum originally accommodated 70,000 people, but now all the seats have disappeared and crumbled away. There were special sections set aside for the nobility and others for the vestal virgins. In the center of the Colosseum an old fortification has been found. It has not been entirely excavated but one can see where the original floor of the arena was.

This same afternoon we went out to view the ancient catacombs. Each of us had a long, fine white taper. We looked as though we were going to bed. Instead we descended into the damp dark passages of the underground burying place which had also been the refuge for the persecuted Christians. Here thousands of people, martyrs, saints and others, had been buried by placing the wrapped body in niches in the wall and covering over with a slab of marble bearing inscriptions or symbols. Every now and then there were small vaulted chapels where altars had been. Two decayed bodies were preserved under glass cover, just as they had been taken from their places in the stone walls. We did not stumble through the 12 miles or over 42 acres which the catacombs are said to cover, but instead came up into the cheerful sunlight with our tapers very nearly burned down. On our way back to the hotel, we stopped at the Protestant cemetery to see the graves of Keats and Shelley. We arrived just at sunset when the mellow light added just the right touch to the peace and quiet beauty of the place. It is only Shelley's heart which is buried in the cemetery here for that was his desire. He wished his heart to be buried in Rome or Italy.

Aug. 4—today—celebrated his 100th anniversary. Keats is buried with his friend, Severn and on his tomb is written: "Here lies one whose name was writ in water," meaning that he thought his name would not live, for he died broken hearted after the harsh criticism of his "endymion."

We made a survey of Raphael's paintings at the Vatican the other morning and in the afternoon went in cars out to Tivoli; a village about 15 miles from here. The village is not important but the surrounding villas are. The one I liked best was the Villa d'Este. It's a perfectly gorgeous spot, with a huge sunken garden, innumerable fountains, long deep pools, and heavy shade trees as well as long narrow winding paths—a perfectly romantic spot. I should love to spend a summer there. The house isn't much but the garden is everything. We took almost a whole film of pictures here—every spot seemed better than the next for a camera scene. I hope they're good.

Our trip back was terribly dusty. The roads are very bumpy and not especially good around here. We were just caked over by the time we got back. Bed looked very inviting but we were disturbed while about to retire by some loud yells out in front of our hotel. We all hung our heads out, as did everyone else along the street, saw some people getting out of cars, and going into our hotel. There seemed to be nothing exciting going on so we withdrew our heads. In the morning we found out that the leader of the Italian revolutionist party in Rome, who lives in our hotel, was holding a very enthusiastic and exciting meeting in the parlors of our hotel. Some woman spoke—hence all the noise. We haven't been blown up or anything yet.

The other morning Dr. Powers took our group to the Sistine chapel noted for its exquisite painted ceiling which was done by Michael Angelo. The vaulted space is divided into panels each telling a portion of the story of Genesis from the creation of earth and water, to the destruction by the flood. The whole plan was beautifully worked out. In the remaining spaces over the windows were figures of the major and minor prophets and the sibyls. Dr. Powers is a wonder at explaining things and making them interesting. We all left feeling the same admiration and love of M. Angelo that he does. We were lucky to have him again in the afternoon to show us around St. Peter's. The church is positively immense—so large that an ordinary American house could be put in the space of one of the supporting pillars. However, whatever its size may be, it is anything but beautiful, for most of the statues are horrible. They were all done in the 17th century when everyone tried to do the impossible and the unusual. There is one statue of St. Peter which is devoutly worshipped by all Catholics. The foot of the statue is well worn because of the custom of wiping off the foot and then kissing it as a mark of reverence. We saw several people perform the rite while we were examining the statue.

We gazed at any number of horrible works of art and then Dr. Powers showed us a few that were very good by contrast. One was of Pope Pius the VII, and the other the "Pietà," showing the dying Christ.

No Short Courses In Osteopathy

There are no short courses in recognized Osteopathic Colleges.

Four full years of special and intensive training must be successfully completed before the student is permitted to practice as a doctor.

It is a high standard—but it insures competent Osteopathic Physicians.

Not only does it include the technique of correct methods of Osteopathic adjustment but it goes further. All proved scientific facts regarding the origin and nature of disease occupy an important place in the curriculum, for the Osteopathic Physician must understand all normal functions in order to properly interpret disease, he must understand normal structure in order to recognize faulty structure. The effects of diet, and hygiene, and the influences of environment are included in the training of the Osteopathic Physician.

His training extends over the entire field of human ailments; he is qualified in practice to treat all curable diseases or conditions.

RUTH.

Saturday, Aug. 12.

Still in Florence. Heat just as intense, night and day. Dearest Mother and all:

Washington, Kansas City, Texas and the hottest places you can think of under exasperating circumstances. Dante's Inferno, in other words, could all compete for the heat race, but Florence would without doubt far out-distance them all. Dante was born here in Florence in a towered structure not far from our hotel and directly across from a spaghetti and under-ripe fruit store. Florence offers the greatest number of surprises for the romantic and observing tourist. Almost every street has seen history enacted and inscriptions marking these places are numerous and authentic. The other night we had an interesting personally conducted tour through the city. We saw one inscription in the pavement of the Piazza Vecchio which told us in Italian that Saorona was hung and burned here. A little further on, in a dark narrow street (most of them are this) where any moment we might have expected to see a knife hurled into space, we stopped before a marble slab which marked the place where Dante used to sit in order to watch the great Cathedral rise from its huge foundations and become a church such as we see today. On the Ponte Vecchio, the most famous bridge in the commercial history of this world next to the Rialto at Venice, we saw a statue of Cellini, whom Mr. Nicholls lightly and with much gusto said was the worst man in Italy. He is said to have murdered a man a day. Some record! Yet because he was a painter of note he was not punished for his killings. We saw the moon rise over the tops of the Florentine homes and reflect in the winding Arno river framing the arched Ponte Vecchio in glittering frame. The moon has a different consistence here. It has a more golden texture, and sheds a brighter light. Of course the buildings here add to the charm of the setting because they are much more picturesque, and radiate the charm of centuries; arched doorways, turreted roofs, either gibeline or gruff. The gibeline party or royalist, all had the former type of turrets and the gruff or artesans, a papal party, had the latter. Many of the homes here had large towers. Each family in early days displayed their wealth and power by the height of their tower. Just like the American family must have a better Ford than his neighbor, just so the Florentines must have a higher tower, and it wasn't any sillier either. Well, today only two of these towers of the original height are in existence because at time of dissension between these two parties the artisans defeated the titled or wealthy retired farmers or land lords, and made them tear down their insolent nose-in-the-air towers which to the gruffs were symbols of tyranny. Just across from our hotel is the Strazz Palace, the home of a once wealthy family. The entire wall is decorated with massive iron rings which were used as holders for the blazing torches that lighted up this structure when the rich nobles came to carouse and pay their deepest respects to their generous host at a house party. All around the palace runs a wide stone bench where beggars now hang out but where the coachmen and servants used to hold forth in a garulous fashion and gossip about their various masters partaking within. Above the bench hang huge iron rings which were used as hitching posts for the spirited steeds that awaited without.

Going back to heat and Dante. They are synonymous because Dante certainly must have put some of the heat of Florence into the setting of his Inferno. Perhaps it even gave him the inspiration for this masterpiece of literature.

This afternoon we had tea with Jessie Evans and the Hayes'. We met them yesterday on the Ponte Vecchio just as one would meet friends in Marshall Fields. Ruth and I darted into this fascinating jewelry store intending to look at things rather than to actually buy anything much. Well, whom should be standing at the counter but Jessie and the whole party of six. You see I had lost their itinerary, so had no idea that they were anywhere near Florence. It certainly means much to meet people from home, because we do get fed up on impersonal persons and natures.

Light heads never shine.

Have Auto Under Control When You Cross Our Tracks

You would not think it necessary for us to beg auto drivers to be careful and protect their own lives and property.

But a perusal of our accident records plainly shows the results of careless automobile operation and so far we have not been able to secure the co-operation of auto drivers in avoiding collisions.

So we repeat: Have your auto under control and look in both directions for approaching street cars before crossing our tracks and the collision record will show immediate improvement.

LOX CHANEY STARS IN "NIGHT ROSE," AT THE MAJESTIC

Lox Chaney adds to his triumphs as the king of the underworld, an entirely different sort of a role, in "The Night Rose," Sunday only at the Majestic. It is an original story by Leroy Scott, the noted novelist, and the cast includes such players as Cullen Landis, Leatrice Joy, Betty Schade, Mary Warren, Edythe Chapman, John Cossar, "Lefty" Flynn, John Powers, Richard Tucker and H. Milton Ross.

Leroy Scott, one of the most virile of American writers whose novel, "Parsons of the Night," has been deemed a splendid picture, has been devoting his recent efforts to creating this original story for the screen. The production is declared one of the most lavish and fully worthy of the author's gift to the silent drama.

Constance Binney Monday
"The Hennessey troupe." That's what the persons called the Constance Binney company as it made "The Sleep Walker." The remark was called for by the fact that the production has "three stars," same as a well-known pre-Volstead drink manufactured by a certain "Hennessey." The "three stars" of "The Sleep Walker," which opens at the Majestic theatre for three days, are Constance Binney, star of the production; Florence Roberts, famous old-time stage star in "Zaza," "Sapho," and "The Eternal Magdalen"; and Cleo Ridgely, who, after a prolonged plunge into private life, recently returned to the screen.

The story deals with the experiences of an innocent convent girl suddenly drawn into a vortex of intrigue, complicated in a thrillingly dramatic manner by her own habit of sleep-walking. The fact that it was written by Aubrey Stauffer, former theatre owner and manager, is offered as proof of its possession of audience quality. Wells Hastings wrote the scenario while Edward La Saint directed. The supporting players are excellent.

"I Am the Law"—Thursday
Alice Lake is having quite a suc-

tic time of it lately in her latest picture, "I Am the Law," which comes to the Majestic Thursday. The charming Alice left Hollywood for the northwest where the exterior of a Royal Northwest Mounted Police story were to be filmed. When she arrived there she encountered a blizzard, the likes of which according to the natives had never been known for the past fifty years. The scenario called for continual exposure, and time after time production had to be stopped temporarily to allow the company some warmth. According to Alice, the picture was so well done that it made up for all the hardships. "It's the best picture of my career," says Miss Lake.

NORMA AS BELLE OF FRENCH COURT AT RIVOLI TODAY

Norma Talmadge has registered many screen achievements. One of her most successful pictures, it will be remembered, was the emotional Spanish drama, "The Passion Flower." More recently came her notable triumph in "Smilin' Through." But Miss Talmadge has not yet been fully satisfied with the semi-costume pictures she had appeared in. She was consumed with ambition to attempt a monumental all costume production, which ambition she has at last realized in "The Eternal Flame," the attraction which will be shown at the Rivoli Theatre today and the first half of next week.

"The Eternal Flame" is an adaptation of Balzac's "La Duchesse de Langeais" which after months spent searching for a suitable story was decided upon as a fitting one for the versatile young star with its background of pomp and magnificence, its intrigues and heartaches. Therefore, she depicts the complex character of that notable court beauty and coquette La Duchesse de Langeais. Those who have studied Miss Talmadge's work and followed her steady growth as an actress of great emotional powers are looking forward with keen interest to this latest part she is enacting, for they are assured she will give a finish and flawless artistry to a role that will set graciously on her young shoulders.

For Norma Talmadge undeniably mixes beauty and personality with brains.

Lila Lee — Thursday
If you must close, don't lose your marriage license! That is the predicament in which T. Roy Barnes and Lila Lee find themselves in the new comedy, "His Marriage License," which is to be shown "last half" at the Rivoli Theatre. After successfully eluding their pursuers and making their way to a mountain resort to spend a blissful honeymoon the lovers are refused admittance by the Parsonage proprietor, who has been wooed by a disappointed rival that the couple are not married. The bride searches for the marriage license, but it has been lost on route! This leads up to a series of laugh-provoking situations, which are enacted by a cast of notables.

STRONG LOVE TYPES IN "BLOOD AND SAND"

Two vastly different types of women portray two different types of affection in "Blood and Sand." Rodolph Valentino's initial Paramount star picture, Lila Lee, youthful and ingenuous, evinces a love sweet and tender, while Nita Naldi, colorful and exotic, sweeps everything away with a volcanic, tempestuous rush of romance.

The love of Rodolph Valentino for these women provides a series of interesting sequences in the Vicente Rasco Ibanez story of Spanish life which June Mathis has specially adapted for the screen. As Mr. Valentino has an international reputation as a perfect love-maker, the romantic episodes bid fair to be even more popular than the sensational, colorful periods laid before wild bulls in the Madrid bull ring where Juan Gallardo is a famous bull-fighter. "Blood and Sand," which is a Fred Niblo production, will be the big feature at the Riviera theatre Monday and Tuesday.

RIVIERA TODAY

The new Fox production, "West of Chicago," starring Charles Jones, has, according to advanced reports, several outstanding features which are sure to make this photoplay a big success.

One of these is Charles Jones' leap from a horse to the platform of an observation car while the train is in motion, a feat requiring a great deal of daring and agility, and which is certain to cause a thrill to the most biased audience.

In another there is a no less exciting scene, but with a comic turn to it. Jones, troubled by some men who are up to sundry crooked acts, determines to put the fear of god into their souls. To accomplish this he dresses the part of a ghost, and waylaying the lawbreakers on a lonely road at night.

The Mexican border, with all its romantic surroundings, furnishes the background for the story.

"West of Chicago" is at the Riviera theater today.

STRAND TODAY

William de Mille has struck the keynote of today most happily in "Nice People," which comes to the Strand theatre today. The modern jazz spirit which pervades our times as well as the possible remedy therefor, are clearly and most entertainingly depicted.

Wallace Reid's role presents him in the light of a good samaritan, his mental outlook cleansed of its possible previous acceptance of such things as the public accepts, as a result of the great war. Debe Daniels expresses the product of the jazz age flawlessly and her experience proves that those who accept freedom up to a given point, will turn upon anyone who oversteps that point.

CASINO TODAY

Underwater scenes are an interesting feature of the new William Fox super-production, "Monte Cristo," adapted from the famous novel by Alexander Dumas and constituting one of the big specials listed by Fox for the season of 1922-1923.

Readers of the great novel will recall the sensational escape of Edmond Dantes from the Chateau d'If; how, after twenty years' imprisonment, he saves himself in a sack, is tipped into the sea as dead, rips himself free from the bag and makes his way to the island of concealed treasure.

The feat was successfully accomplished, mainly because John Gilbert, playing Dantes, is an expert swimmer and diver, and was able, therefore, to lend dramatic truth to the performance, which a double would have been unable to do.

"Monte Cristo" will be at the Casino today.

"The Eternal Flame"

For NORMA TALMADGE—for the art of the screen—another pillar of unique achievement. Fast scenes, magnificent in investiture of color and crowd, will hold your eye—but ever holding your heart will be the glory, romance, drama, the inaffable appeal of this wonderful woman.

Gorgeous to behold—yet never to be held; vivid to love, yet never to be won; pure beauty asking only the fealty of one man, but when he wagers on her faith as he would upon a falcon—exotic exile to the intrigue, glamor, scandal of France's gayest courts. They, the playground, men the baubles of the glorious Duchesse de Langeais—and dimly flickered the love-flame, to be snuffed by a breath—or fanned to a blast, to consume her with a passion of sacrifice, an ecstasy of love such as few women may squander on a man.

"CHICK" EVANS IS DEFEATED IN AMATEUR GOLF TITLE PLAY

JESSE SWEETSER IS VICTOR OVER CHAMP OF CHAMPS, 3 UP 2

Victory Brought to New York, Siwanoy Golf Club and to Yale

STORY OF SUCCESS IS THAT EVANS BEATEN AT OWN GAME

Sweetser Reverses Result of Previous Meeting Last Year

BROOKLINE, Mass.—By Associated Press.—The national amateur golf championship was won Saturday by Jesse W. Sweetser, bringing victory to New York, to the Siwanoy Golf club and to Yale. He vanquished "Chick" Evans, Jr., of Chicago, three up and two to play.

Golfing youth triumphed over golfing age. "Chick" won his first national title in 1916. Sweetser, still in his twenty-first year. With one exception he is the youngest champion in the 25 years of title competition in this country. With few exceptions, he was the youngest of the lot of 149 golfers, the most brilliant field ever gathered for the event, who set out there a week ago for the championship.

Won on Evans' Game
To golfing enthusiasts the story of his success Saturday lies in the fact that he beat Chick Evans at his own game. It was expected that Sweetser would out-drive Evans—and he did. It was thought he would be off on his approach and that Evans would beat him at this department of play, in which Chick is acknowledged the best in the world but he did not. Instead Sweetser was usually straight ahead and it was Chick who was in the rough, who was trapped or bunkered, trying to get to the greens.

In every match in which he advanced in this tournament Sweetser got up strokes to improve his advantage. This is the first year of the stymie's restoration and, without having been the cause, it was still a factor in the making of the champion of this year.

Reverses '20 Result
In his victory Saturday, he reversed the result of his previous meeting with Evans when he was defeated one up in the third round of the national tournament at St. Louis last year.

The closing scene Saturday was on the 16th green. At the 34th hole of the match, both Sweetser and Evans had driven to the green from the tee 120 yards away. Chick's ball rested eight feet away. Jess' was ten feet away.

Dormie three, Sweetser almost gave his victory a touch of the sensational by boldly seeking for a birdie two to one in a single stroke. He missed by inches. Chick, who was stalled defeated by winning the hole before, tried to stem it again, also shooting boldly for the cup. He, too, fell short and the match ended, not with the tapping of a ball but with Evans shaking the hand of his conqueror, conceding the hole and the match. The crowd then took the new champion into its arms and on its shoulders and he was carried off the course.

The new champion was born in Todd county, Kentucky, is six feet tall, and weighs 170 pounds. His pleasant, well-chiseled face is topped by a crown of golden brown hair, brushed back, which falls across his forehead as he takes his stance.

His rise in national play has been steady, each year advancing higher until today he reached the peak.

CHURCH ATHLETIC LEAGUE TO ENLARGE PROGRAM OF EVENTS

Every Interested Member to be Given Opportunity in Some One Branch

The Church Athletic league assisted by the Y. M. C. A. will this year enlarge its scope of activities in order to give every man and boy in the churches an opportunity to participate in some one branch.

Last year nine different leagues were conducted among twelve different churches and the spirit of rivalry and clean sport was manifested in all. A card explaining the league and giving a list of the proposed sports for this year is being placed in the hands of every male member in the several churches with a view to obtain a census of the number of men and boys interested.

This card must be handed back to the Y. M. C. A. with the activities checked by Monday, Sept. 25th so that the different leagues may be formed and scheduled. Following is the list of proposed sports:

OUTLOOK BRIGHT FOR GREAT GRID MACHINE AS 63 HUSKIES REPORT TO COACH KEOGAN

WITH 63 huskies reporting regularly for practice, the outlook for a winning football team at high school never was brighter than at the present time. Included in the 63 youthful aspirants for gridiron laurels are seven letter men from last year's squad, and several experienced grid battlers who have been kept out of the game in previous seasons because of scholastic ineligibility and other reasons.

Abraham Back
Captain Joe Abraham is back in school and will fill one of the half back positions. "Babe" Weizner, who played last year's eleven will again be in the lineup, but will probably be shifted to a half. Dunham and Lisovsky regular tackles last year are both back, as are blitzer guard, and Blakeley center, Johnny Ash, a letter man last season will probably be found on one of the ends this year.

Pitching Horse Shoes By Light of Moon Is New

By the light of the moon, they're pitching horse shoes now.

So popular is the game of "barn-yard golf" becoming, that they're throwing around the peg in the moonlight these nights, with the aid of auto headlights.

Last Thursday evening a casual autoist chanced to pass by the Barre Mills school house. He noticed several automobiles parked at angles with their lights focused at the same object. The moon was shining brightly.

More closely inspecting the gathering and peculiar arrangement, the passer-by saw women seated in the cars watching men folks, in their shirt-sleeves, tossing ringers around a peg, one after another. Mr. O. C. Stromberg, Dr. H. J. Hansen, Mr. E. E. Seidman, Mr. J. T. Haugen, of this city and Mr. O. O. Hagen, of Minneapolis, were staging the show.

They declared it was great sport, to the passer-by, and added that they will meet all comers, day or night.

Once they read fashions to read what was going on, but they read that to see what's being pulled off.

Cameron who subbed as end last season, is looked for to make a strong bid for a regular berth on the team, this year as well as Eddie Ronder and "Duck" Blumstein. In addition to those mentioned Keogan has a host of likely looking candidates for positions. Bob Regat has been reporting regularly and will not doubt prove to be of first string caliber. Glen Murrie, a letter man two seasons ago, is again in the running, and Art Frey, quarterback in 1929 has returned to La Crosse and is out for a position on the high school squad. Ed Frey, his brother is also a candidate for a place on the team.

Strong Seconds
Maroon, Bakken, Hettlinger and others from last season's second string will all make their presence felt in the game this year, and will probably develop into valuable assets to the team under Keogan's tutelage.

KEELER HAS NUMBER OF OLD MEN BACK FOR GRID SQUAD

Call Expected to be Issued Soon After Registration Day

Next Tuesday
With the passing shortly of the baseball season, fans of outdoor sports are turning their attention toward the coming football season.

Coach "Tubby" Keeler of the La Crosse normal school, at the beginning of the year has a host bunch of last season's players around which to build up the representative squad of the Maroon and Gray. Coach Keeler is expected to issue the call shortly after registration.

Among the men coming back, are Captain Ole Gunderson, who was ineligible for a number of games last year, but who starts this fall with a clean record and a determination to hold his job against the newcomers. Bill Ross, consistent player of last season although handicapped by an injured shoulder, will be back to fight for a position in the backfield. Jack Murry, sturdy ground runner of last year, will again enter on Tuesday.

Chief among the aspirants for positions in the backfield, is Bobby Hurd, small in stature but of no mean ability in bucking the line. Much is expected of him this season. The line was perhaps hit the hardest by the graduation of a number of stellar men, but with the aid of Stoneman, Poscover, Fulaniewicz, Czerboski, a stone wall should be constructed from the material.

KAI SANG WINS

"Lefty" Lentz, a graduate of the Bradley Technical Institute, will have charge of the second string this season. He is an experienced coach and a well known athlete. He coached a team in Springfield, Ill. last year. An assistant will be given him later. He is expected, with the material he has to work with, to turn out an eleven that will offer keen opposition to the regulars.

Opening Game Cancelled
The opening game, which was to have been played with Red Wing on September 30th, has been called off. The management of the local team has been corresponding with several schools, and a fast game for the opener, is assured.

Joe Murphy has been selected as student manager for the coming season, and Mr. Scott will again handle affairs from the faculty end.

VAN AUKEN WINNER OF COLMAN CUP FOR SEVENTH SEASON

Neimeyer off in Final Flight Saturday; Defeated 7 up and 6

GEORGE L. VAN AUKEN Saturday night was the possessor of the Colman Cup, treasured trophy at the country club, for the seventh time as a result of defeating Emil Neimeyer in the final 36-hole play at the La Crosse Country club links. Neimeyer was defeated 7 up and 6.

One of the largest galleries on record for this event followed the men through the entire course Saturday. The first 18 holes were played in the forenoon, with the wind-up beginning after a luncheon at noon.

While he constantly appeared in phenomenal style throughout the entire play of the week, Neimeyer was severely able to find his usual stroke in the play on Saturday. It was evident from the beginning that Van Auker, while not in his usual form, would be easily the ultimate winner again this season.

In the September scratch, Kenneth Saker defeated Harry Curtis, 4 up and 3.

Winning of the trophy by Van Auker on Saturday, brought his total of these notable victories up to seven. He has been victorious in the field on each of his seven attempts, winning the cup for the first time in 1913 with Andrew Lees as runner-up. Subsequent victories were won by Van Auker in 1914 against J. M. Hixon, in 1915 and 1916 against R. D. Gordon, in 1919, against Earl Hirschleimer, and in 1921 against Emil Neimeyer.

TONAWANDAS OF ST. PAUL TO CLASH WITH MONTAGUE CLUB AT COPELAND PARK SUNDAY

EFFORTS of the Montague baseball club will be directed this afternoon at Copeland park against the Tonawanda ball club of St. Paul, which comes to La Crosse with a notable record of victories in the Western amateur baseball association this season.

F. J. Bedessem, of the Montagues, said Saturday afternoon that the club will start a new hurler against the Tonawandas today. He is Lefty Lentz, two-year member of the Peoria Three-I club. Lentz is to be permanently located in the city this year as assistant to Coach Keogan, director of athletics at the high school. McCauley, however, will be out in uniform.

Champions of the above league in 1921, the Tonawandas this year came back with the same fight, losing but two games to place second from the top in the final standing. The championship team lost but one game. The Tonawandas started the season with eleven straight wins, lost two straight, and won the fourteenth and fifteenth contests. Of the eighteen games played by this club in the

PROPOSED MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL ASSOCIATION ALREADY HAS ADMITTED 148 MAJOR PLAYERS TO MEMBERSHIP

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—The proposed major league baseball association has already admitted to membership 142 major league players, according to Ray D. Cannon, Milwaukee lawyer, who has been retained by a number of major league ball players to perfect the organization.

A few days ago membership pledges were sent to the majority of the major league ball players and to date 148 have signed to be members of the association, according to Mr. Cannon. He did not desire to divulge the names of those players but he stated that the list includes many of the great stars. Mr. Cannon's statement reads in part as follows:

"To date only major league players have been requested to join the association. Notwithstanding the fact that we have received requests from over a hundred players in other leagues we desire to perfect an all-league organization in the major leagues before admitting the minor league men."

"The association will be completed within the next two weeks and we will have at least 90 per cent of the major league ball players backing it. All the ball players are asking for fair-play. Under present conditions they are wholly at the mercy of the club owners. They have no voice in the question of higher salaries, and the contracts that are forced on them are so one-sided that they are laughable."

AMERICAN LEGION TO STAGE SECOND SHOW NOVEMBER 6

The Roy L. Vingers Post of the American Legion is intent on staying in the boxing game. A good enough showing was made by the fans at the Labor Day bouts to assure the officials of the local post that the game will be well supported in this city, and they have made tentative plans for the next show to take place on November 6.

While no definite arrangements have been made as yet, a good card is promised.

FIRST OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NOON LUNCHEONS WEDNESDAY

Plan Includes Get-together
Luncheon Weekly, With Good Speakers

In order that the membership of the Chamber may have an opportunity of getting together at least once a week and become better acquainted and hear the best speakers in America on various subjects which are of vital interest to our community, noon luncheons will be held every Wednesday, beginning next Wednesday, September 13. These luncheons will start promptly at 12:00 and adjourn at 1:15.

Wilson to Speak

Lucius E. Wilson, president of the General Organization company of Chicago, will be the guest of the Chamber next Wednesday, September 13. Mr. Wilson is a noted civic worker and has spent the past twenty years in building Des Moines, Detroit and hundreds of other cities in the United States. He is responsible for the success attained by Des Moines and Detroit, commencing the foundation upon which these two cities have been built.

He became familiar with the problems of these organizations through actual experience, first as assistant secretary of the Detroit Board of Commerce, then as secretary for four years of the Greater Des Moines committee. During the four years of his service to this organization, Des Moines experienced the most remarkable development of its history. The Greater Des Moines plan, evolved and fostered by the Greater Des Moines committee, became nationally famous, and by working out a carefully planned program of advance for Des Moines, the committee, under Mr. Wilson's management, changed the attitude of the whole population of Iowa toward their capital city. This resulted in the course of five years in making Des Moines the industrial center, wholesale center, retail center, educational center and convention center of Iowa.

Recalled to Detroit

At the end of four years Mr. Wilson was recalled to Detroit as secretary of the Detroit Board of Commerce and during his incumbency planned and built the present home of that great organization at a cost of more than $200,000, and which is valued today at over one-half million. After two years in this position, Mr. Wilson returned to become sales manager of a large automobile concern. He was called out of this organization, however, by the city of Dayton, Ohio, to conduct a campaign to bring the master plan of government to that city. Three separate campaigns were necessary to secure the charter, its adoption and the incorporation of the city. After winning success in each of these campaigns, he then organized the Greater Dayton association, which became the largest civic organization in the world. Following the Dayton experience, Mr. Wilson was persuaded to join the staff of the American City Bureau, becoming its vice president and chief of staff.

In Demand as Speaker

In this capacity he assisted in the organization of more than 75 civic and commercial organizations in all parts of the United States. In addition he has been in great demand as a speaker and has addressed thousands of audiences.

Mr. Wilson is author of "Building Cities for Tomorrow," and many other treatises on organization policy and management. In personal life he is a farmer, owning a farm near East Dorset, Vt., the cultivation of which he supervises.

These noon luncheons are not going to be long, drawn out, dry affairs. It is the intention of the board to make these meetings short, snappy and crisp, always starting at 12 and adjourning at 1:15. You can get personal returns for your very nominal investment of the price of a luncheon.

URGES MOVIE LICENSE INSTEAD OF CENSOR

PORTLAND, Ore.—Advocating a system of licensing motion picture producers in the manner in which the saloon was licensed in the pre-Prohibition days—Dean Charles N. Davis, executive secretary of the social service department of the Episcopal church, addressed the members of the Portland City club Saturday. His suggestion came in a denunciation of censorship as an "inroad on free speech."

ARMY FLIER BURNED WHEN PLANE CRASHES

SAGINAW, Mich.—Master Sergeant Tracy W. Johnson, 32, the army air service, Selfridge Field, was burned, perhaps fatally near here Saturday morning, when the airplane he was piloting, crashed and then caught fire. Corporal George Herun, 20, his companion, escaped uninjured. Herun was unable to account for the accident. The plane fell about 75 feet.
